

SOC. 314: Population Policy and Population Planning (2Units)

The study of population policies, social factors, the programmes for their implementation, and the evaluation of this programmes. Comparative analysis of development planning, with particular reference to the role of population in some countries. Contemporary population planning in Nigeria.