

MME 501: Materials Joining Technology

Techniques for the translation of design to modern metal structure, brazing, soldering and welding; brief examination of metal arc, inert gas and submerged arc welding; microstructure and properties of fusion welds made by arc processes; and defects in welds; adhesives and fasteners, and joining of non-metallic materials, e.g. ceramic to polymers or ceramic to metals.